

Communication and Language

- To listen and respond to ideas expressed by others.
- To follow a story without prompts or props.
- To use talk to organise sequence and clarify thinking

Literacy

- To read and write simple words and sentences
- To use finger spaces
- To read a range of books by different authors- Hands De Beer
- To learn about and use information books

Mathematics

- To combine and partition groups
- To learn the words addition and subtraction ,taking away
- To count on and back
- To find out more about time - days seasons
- To make time lines

Physical Development

- Handwriting: to start letters in the correct way when I am writing
- To play simple team games
- To find out more about exercise and what I eat for a healthy life.

Reception Spring 1 2020

Reception - Spring 1

Special words - seasons, week days before after next

Change melting freezing experiment observe

Addition subtraction altogether total

Author, information book ,fiction ,non-fiction

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

- To talk about myself in positive terms - what am I good at?
- To share achievements in and out of school
- To share my knowledge about things
- Our Value - Perseverance and Pride with Percy the tortoise

Understanding of the World

- To look closely at similarities and differences between animals, objects and places.
- To observe changes e.g. melting and freezing

Expressive Art and Design

- To understand different media can be combined
- To select appropriate colour and materials to make winter scenes
- To describe changes in music - fast and slow, spiky and smooth etc
- To move in time to music

If you have any questions please ask your child's class teacher